NOTICE CONCERNING HEARING

NOW COMES Plaintiff, Patrick Prince, by and through his attorneys, and respectfully submits the following notice, and states:

1. Yesterday, this Court scheduled a hearing for the City's motion for protective order for Friday, April 1, 2022. Dkt. 330.

2. Today, in furtherance of that order, this Court requested that Mr.
Swaminathan appear at the hearing "given his familiarity with a similar issue in the Reyes/Solache cases." Dkt. 331.

3. Mr. Swaminathan is unavailable on Friday, April 1, 2022, and out on a previously-schedule trip.

4. Though I have not participated in the litigation of the Reyes/Solache cases, I am familiar with the differential postures of the two cases, and will review the docket in Reyes/Solache concerning the PTP production and the City's motion concerning that production (which it referenced in a status report in this case), so that the Court's questions can be answered on Friday.

5. Should this pose a problem for the Court, Plaintiff has no objection to the status being reset but the undersigned will be prepared to address all issues at the hearing Friday.

Dated: March 30, 2021
